READ—the following letter from G. HAMNETT, Esq., Inspector-General of Registration, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 23rd October 1883, No. 2309 :—

I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of the Government for the preparation of plan and estimate, on the standard design, for the construction of a sub-registrar's office at Kásaragód, in the district of South Canara.

2. The sub-registrar reports that the accommodation provided at present in a corner of the inner verandah of the taluk cutcherry is altogether insufficient, and that he and his establishment are put to much inconvenience in consequence. The greater portion of the accommodation, he adds, is taken up by the almirahs containing the registration records. The place is not enclosed in, and "the almirahs though locked and sealed are accessible to persons resorting to the cutcherry."
