Office note from the Examiner P. W. Accounts N^o 820 dated 5th Nov^r/83

It is stated in the Superintending Engineer's letter that the salary of temporary clerk J. Bapiraju has been disallowed because the man had not passed the prescribed examination in Public Works Procedure and Practice, but it would appear from the foregoing note from the Examiner Public Works Accounts that the clerk has also not passed the middle school examination. As the P. W. Code examination has not yet been thrown open to those outside the department, it may perhaps be impracticable to obtain for

DOWLAISHWERAM, 17th October 1883

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you that a man named J. Rapiraw, a pensioned Accountant, was appointed as Clerk 3^d Class 2nd Grade Salary Rs 60 in the Godanari Central Division Office on the 1st January 1883. This post he held up to 6th August 1883 on which date he resigned his appointment.

Salary

2. The salary disbursed to the man during the above period amounted to Rs 431-9-10 which sum, the Divisional Officer reports, is held in the Miscellaneous Advance Account, as the Examiner of P. W. Accounts has disallowed the Clerk's pay on the grounds that he had not passed an examination in P. W. Procedure & Practice - vide para 166 of the P. W. Code. I request therefore you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Govt
