Your office note
No 658 dated 26th Sept 1883

Please say whether under the enclosed order now communicated by Mr. Bliss, you can see your way to admitting pay to Mr.
Upshon from 18th to 10th
August 1883.

Mr. Upshon was not granted "leave without allowances" by this office.
He was allowed to take up an appointment in the Salt Department, but as he was on probation there, his post in this office was kept open for him. When it was found that his health would not admit admit of his remaining in the Salt department he sought permission to revert to this office, and his services were accordingly with the sanction of Government in the Revenue Department, replaced at the disposal of the Public Works Department. He was serving Government throughout, and the period of his employment in the Salt Department counts for pension, privilege leave, furlough &c.

Leave was not formally granted to Mr. Upshaw, & therefore an order cancelling it does not appear necessary.

and your Office Note

August/83.

If it is intended that Mr. Upshaw should be allowed pay and Travelling Allowance on Transit, formal orders of Government will be necessary declaring that the leave is cancelled and that he was transferred to the Salt Department and retransferred to P. W. D. in the interests of public service.
