Sir,

When I inspected the Bellare Division Office in July, last, I learnt from the Executive Engineer, Captain Henderson R.E., that he was paying Rs 15 to an extra clerk from his own pocket; the reason being, that, one clerk in the establishment (P. Cheuchuramiak by name) is absent on one year's leave on medical Certificate, and the Executive Engineer was unable to fill up the post by a passed man for the sum available to pay him. The moiety of Cheuchuramiak's pay, is Rs 15, and this is the sum available to pay a clerk. The Examiner rules, that this temporary post on Rs 15 must necessarily be held by a passed man, because ^{the} substantive post, in which the temporary vacancy has occurred, is one to which the Examination rules apply.

2. Captain Henderson could not get a passed man, and reports that in Melbore he finds a difficulty in getting passed men for Rs 20.

3. On the Examiner refusing to pass the pay of the man appointed to act, Captain Henderson paid the man himself, which he says was the only alternative, not to let the accounts get into arrears. The Examiner is doubtless correct in his interpretation of the existing rules, but the rule itself is apparently too strict.

I would request that, in this case, the Executive Engineer may be authorised to entertain an unpassed man on the understanding that, his service being temporary, will not count as qualifying service, and that Captain Henderson may be reimbursed the amount paid by him for the substitute for Cherukuramiah.

5- This matter is referred to in para 2 of the Examiner's note printed with G.O. No 2070W of the 30th July 1883.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedt Servant
