

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

6th November 1883, No. 5925.

Pay and Allowances.

Read the following papers :—

No. 58. From Colonel H. L. PRENDERGAST, R.E., Superintending Engineer, Fifth Circle, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department; dated Chepauk, 3rd September 1883, No. 2080.

It is ruled in para. 4 of the Secretary of State's despatch, No. 171, dated 10th May 1883, as published in G.O., No. 2112-W., dated 1st August 1883, that Indian officers, unless they elect for half-pay on promotion to Major-General, must draw English pay for the rest of their service while unemployed.

2. I have the honor to represent that this paragraph, as it stands, might be read as if it were applicable to officers in India as well as in England.

3. But the rule in force is that a Major-General can draw the pay and Indian allowances of his former rank for a period of three years in India, and I trust that there is no intention of abolishing this privilege.

No. 1672-C.

Referred to the Military Department, with advertence to Proceedings of Government in that department, No. 3720, of 4th July 1883.

No. 59. From Lieutenant-Colonel C. CARTER, Officiating Controller of Military Accounts, to Colonel E. L. HANKIN, Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Fort St. George, 15th September 1883, B.

Docket No. 4915, dated 10th September 1883, on letter from the Superintending Engineer, Fifth Circle, inquiring whether the rule allowing a Major-General Indian pay and allowances for three years in India is to be regarded as cancelled by the decision of the Secretary of State in para. 4 of his despatch published in Proceedings of Government, No. 2112-W., dated 1st August 1883 (Military Department No. 3720, dated 4th July 1883).

In returning the paper referred as per margin, I have the honor to state that this office is of opinion that para. 4 of the Secretary of State's despatch in question only regulates pay admissible out of India. Under this view, and which is also held by the Controller of Military Accounts, Bengal, the privilege accorded by para. 532, Pay Code for India, Vol. I, remains undisturbed.

No. 60.

No. 5101.

The Government are of opinion that the privilege conferred by para. 532, Pay Code, Vol. I, is unaffected by para. 4 of the Secretary of State's military despatch to the Government of India, No. 171, dated 10th May 1883, but the question will be submitted for the decision of the Government of India.
