Read the following paper :—

No. 320. From Major T. DEANE, Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Quartermaster-General in India; dated Simla, 31st July 1883, No. 992-S.D.

Commissariat Department—Transport.

In acknowledging the receipt of your letters marginally noted, I am directed to state that the Government of India concur with His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in the opinion that army transport in the Bengal presidency, when not actually in use with the troops, may be made use of for State purposes (including the private purposes of political officers) by both military and civil officers, under the orders of the General Officer Commanding the Division or District, the following rates being charged for the transport so lent :—

No. 89 A. (Camp), dated 15th January 1883.
No. 3071a, dated 7th July 1883.

In time of war.

Per camel	8 annas a day.
Per mule or bullock	7 annas a day.
Per mule with cart	12 annas a day.

In peace times.

Elephants	Any excess on actual cost of Rs. 50 per mensem.
Camels	... Rs. 10 per mensem.
Mules	... Rs. 8 per mensem.
Pack bullocks	... Rs. 7 per mensem.
Army transport carts with bullocks	... Rs. 19 per mensem.
Light carts with mules	... Rs. 12 per mensem.

2. The cost of the transport supplied will be credited to the State in war times, in the case of regimental officers, through the pay lists or general states of the regiment or battery to which the officers belong; and in the case of political or other civil officers, by the commissariat (transport) officers in their cash accounts. In times of peace, bills should be sent out by the transport officer.
