Resolution—

The opinions of Local Governments and Heads of Departments on the Draft Travelling Allowance Code, issued in May last, have now been received and considered by the Government of India.

The authorities consulted agree almost without exception in the necessity for consolidating the various orders relating to Travelling Allowances, and approve of the general plan on which the Code has been framed.

The criticisms on points of detail are numerous; but it seems unnecessary to refer to them in detail, or to state at length the reasons which have led the Governor-General in Council to the decision arrived at in each case. All objections to, and criticisms of, the rules as originally drafted have, however, been fully considered by the Governor-General in Council, and such alterations and modifications as seemed requisite have been introduced into the copy of the Code appended to this Resolution which embodies the final orders of Government on the subject.

The Code is issued in supersession of all existing orders relating to the Travelling Allowance of officers employed in the Civil Department; it will come into force from the 1st April next, and from that date no other authority should be quoted or referred to in deciding questions relating to such allowances. If any orders, which it is necessary to maintain in force, have, through oversight, not been embodied in the Code, any officer, who is of opinion that such orders should be revived, may refer the question to the Government of India through the proper channel. Without the special authority of the Government of India no such order can be held to be in force after 1st April 1883; but to prevent the inconvenience which might arise from changes unintentionally wrought in the rules, the Governor-General in Council authorizes local Governments to maintain in force, by a provisional order, pending a reference to the Government of India, any local or special order which appears to have been unintentionally omitted from the Code. The power thus delegated to local Governments should be sparingly used; no order should be even provisionally maintained in force, unless it is practically certain that the order has really been overlooked, and that it was not the intention to supersede it by one of the general rules of the Code.

The preparation of a Travelling Allowance Code was undertaken some years ago, but the progress made up to a recent period was slight, owing to the difficulty experienced in consolidating existing orders and reconciling conflicting opinions; the completion of the Code in its present form is due to the industry and ability which Mr. Stephen Jacob, C.S., has displayed in dealing with the subject, and the Governor-General in Council desires to take this opportunity of acknowledging the valuable service rendered by that officer on this occasion.

Order—

Ordered that a copy of the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.

Ordered also, that a copy of the Resolution, with a copy of the Code, be forwarded to the several Departments of the Government of India, local Governments and Administrations, all Accountants-General, and to the Heads of Departments under the Financial Department.

(Signed) R. LOGAN,
for Secretary to the Govt. of India.

Order—dated 13th March 1883, No. 569, Financial.

Communicated to all Heads of Departments for information and guidance.
