READ—the following papers:—

From F. N. THOROWGOOD, Esq., M. INST. C.E., Superintendent, Madras Harbour Works, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 17th March 1883, No. 58 W.

In continuation of this office letter, No. 52 W., of 10th January 1883, and the Government Order thereon, No. 171, dated 18th January 1883, I have the honor to report that Mr. W. S. Boteler, Foreman for the Moorings, will leave Madras for England on the 26th instant in the S.S. India.

2. He has done his duty steadily and most satisfactorily, and is therefore entitled, by his covenant with the Secretary of State, to a second-class passage home and full pay to date of arrival in England. A second-class passage ticket has been supplied him from the Marine Department.

3. The Examiner of Public Works Accounts tells me to ask for the orders of Government upon the subject of his pay and passage at an early date, which course, though it appears to me unnecessary, I now adopt.

Articles of Agreement

made the 25th day of March One Thousand eight hundred and eighty one Between William Stewart Boteler of the first part and the Secretary of State for India in Council of the second part Whereas the Secretary of State for India in Council has engaged the said William Stewart Boteler to serve Her Majesty in the East Indies as a Foreman for putting down and fixing Screw Moorings for the Madras Harbour Works at the Salary hereinafter mentioned Now these Presents witness and it is hereby agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows:-

1. That he the said William Stewart Boteler will as soon as he may be directed by the Secretary of State for India in Council (a second class passage but not Hotel accommodation or any other expenses incurred on land in the course of his transit being provided for him) proceed to Madras and will report himself to the Superintendent of the Madras Harbour Works there and submit himself to the orders of the said Superintendent and of the Officers under whom he shall be placed
2. That he will continue in the service of Government until the completion of the said Moorings as now intended or as they may be modified by Government (as to which completion the Government of Madras shall be the sole Judges) Provided always that the Government may put an end to his service at any time on giving him one calendar months notice
3. That he will employ himself wholly efficiently and diligently under the orders and instructions of the Officers under whom he shall from time to time be placed as a Foreman for putting down and fixing Screw Moorings for the Madras Harbour Works and that he will do all things and discharge all such duties as are required and are necessary to be done and discharged in that capacity and will in addition thereto make himself generally useful as may be required of him And that he will do his best to instruct in the mystery of his art the natives and others who may be placed under him or may be working with him
4. That he will not absent himself from his duties without first obtaining the permission of the Officers under whom he shall from time to time be placed or in case of sickness or inevitable accident without forwarding a Medical Certificate satisfactory to the Officers aforesaid
5. That he will not at any time on his own account or otherwise either directly or indirectly carry on or be concerned in any trade or business whatsoever but will devote his whole time to his duties
6. That he will truly and faithfully account for pay over or deliver to the Government or to the persons duly authorised to receive the same all monies goods chattels and effects which may at any time come to his hands or be under his charge on account of Government

7 That he will conform to all the rules and regulations of the Department to which he shall belong and obey all such orders and directions as he may from time to time receive from any authorised Officer of the Government

8 That should he at any time be guilty of insubordination drunkenness misconduct or disobedience of orders or of a breach of any of the matters herein contained it shall be lawful for the Government immediately and without any previous notice to discharge him from the service

9 That if and upon condition that he the said William Stewart Boteler observes performs and keeps all the engagements and matters herein contained on his part to be observed performed and kept the Government will pay to him for so long time as he shall be actually in the service and perform such duties a salary at and after the rate of Rupees Three hundred and fifty per mensem.

10 That the Salary from time to time payable to the said William Stewart Boteler shall be payable monthly in India commencing from the date of these presents and ceasing on the day of his quitting the service or on the day of his discharge therefrom, or on the day of his death if he shall die whilst therein. But if he shall quit the service with the approbation of Government, having satisfactorily performed his duties, his salary shall be calculated and paid up to the date of his arrival in England provided he proceeds there forthwith and as he may be directed by Government.

11 That if at the expiration of his service under these presents the said William Stewart Boteler shall at all times have performed his duties to the satisfaction of the Government he shall be provided with second Class Passage as aforesaid to England if he makes application for such passage within twenty one days from the day on which his service shall expire and leaves India at the time directed by Government.

12 That if the said William Stewart Boteler be guilty of any insubordination drunkenness or other misconduct or of the breach of any of the provisions herein contained on account of which he shall be discharged from the service he shall pay to the Government a sum equal to one years salary and if he shall improperly absent himself from the said service he shall pay Rupees Ten per diem for every day he shall be so absent and if he shall at any time quit the service without the permission of the Government he shall pay Rupees Ten per diem for every day between the day when he shall so quit the service and the day when his said service would have expired: all which said several sums shall become due and be paid by the said William Stewart Boteler as and by way of liquidated damages and shall upon demand be paid by him to the Government or it shall be lawful for the Government to deduct

To W.

From paras 10 and 11 of Mr Boteler's Articles of Agreement herewith, it will be observed that the grant of salary up to date of his arrival in England and of a free 2nd. Class passage home is dependent upon whether Mr. Boteler performed his duties to the satisfaction of Government.

2. If Government consider that Mr Boteler has performed his duties satisfactorily, he may be granted pay and passage accordingly.
