GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 19th August 1884, No. 2893 :—

Read—the following letter from J. GROSE, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 4th August 1884, No. 3955 :—

In G.O., 8th June 1869, No. 1617, Government approved of the proposal made by Mr. Dykes and supported by the Board that the General Duty Deputy Collector when moved from Nayadupet to Atmakúr should have magisterial and revenue charge of Udayagiri and Atmakúr and magisterial charge of Kávali, leaving to the Collector the revenue charge of Kávali.

2. In G.O., 1st February 1877, No. 483, the present charges are sanctioned ; and they give the Collector revenue charge of Nellore and Gúdúr and magisterial charge of the taluk of Nellore, south of the Pennér. The magisterial charges were settled by G.O., 8th July 1878, No. 1359, when I had informed Government (Board's Proceedings, 18th May 1878, No. 1351) that after actual experience I had found that the magisterial charge of the Nellore taluk south of the river, including the town, was as much as the Collector could manage directly, and (letter to Chief Secretary, 24th June 1878, No. 509) that the Head Assistant Magistrate and the General Duty Deputy Collector would have to exchange magisterial divisions when the Deputy Collector is moved to Atmakúr.

3. A change began to be contemplated when Mr. Lee-Warner, who was acting during my absence, wrote the letter disposed of in Board's Proceedings, 19th April 1884, Mis. No. 3252. He says there : " I see no objection to placing Atmakúr and Udayagiri under a First-class Deputy Collector, and the Collector will then have in his own charge the Nellore and Kávali taluks, which will not be more than he can manage with the assistance of an Assistant or Deputy Collector as his Personal Assistant ;" and Government, in G.O., 17th June 1884, No. 759, say : " The redistribution of divisional charges as proposed by the Collector is approved ;" and again : " It is presumed that the Collector contemplates the retention of the magisterial charge of the Kávali taluk in his own hands."

4. I have the honor to submit that, in my opinion, it will be better if the magisterial charge of Kávali is given to the Deputy Collector as was at first proposed and sanctioned. The enclosed statement seems to me to show that the charge given to an official of the status of Deputy Collector should be larger than the mere charge of Atmakúr and Udayagiri. The Kávali taluk, as a whole, is as near to Atmakúr as to Nellore. It is still my opinion that the charge of the Nellore taluk south of the river is as much as the District Magistrate can manage, and, as it includes the town, it is the best suited to his position. The present arrangement which gives the revenue charge and the magisterial charge of one taluk (Gúdúr) to different officers has not worked well.

5. I think the Deputy Collector should have magisterial and revenue charge of Atmakúr and Udayagiri and magisterial charge of Kávali and the portion of the Nellore taluk which is north of the river. When there is a passed assistant in the district, he can have the revenue charge of Kávali (as he now has of Gúdúr) and the magisterial charge of the part of the Nellore taluk which lies north of the river.

2. No notice is taken of tracts intermingled with Government tracts, as for instance in the Kanigiri taluk.

Resolution—dated 19th August 1884, No. 2893.

Submitted to Government.

2. Under G.O., No. 759, dated 17th June 1884, the divisions are as follows:—

Collector with Assistant or Temporary Deputy Collector. { Nellore.
Kávali.
Gúdúr.
Rápúr.
Venkatagiri.
Pólúr.
Atmakúr.
Udayagiri.

Head Assistant Collector

General Deputy Collector

This arrangement abolishes the divided revenue and magisterial jurisdiction which has obtained for some years past in Nellore district.

3. Mr. Grose now proposes to give to the Deputy Collector on general duty the magisterial charge of Kávali and the northern half of Nellore taluk, which would give him the old charge of the Head Assistant Collector; but this would again introduce the divided jurisdictions, and the Board suggest that a simpler plan would be to give to the Deputy Collector the revenue and magisterial charge of Kávali.

4. The divisions would thus be as follows:—

Collector Nellore.
Deputy Collector { Atmakúr.
Udayagiri.
Kávali.
Gúdúr.
Rápúr.
Venkatagiri.
Pólúr.

The Assistant Collector has magisterial charge of Gúdúr and the Compensation Deputy Collector has magisterial charge of the Nellore taluk north of the river; but this is only a temporary charge necessitated by special circumstances.

2. No notice is taken of the Zamindari tracts intermingled with Government tracts, as for instance in the Kanigiri taluk.

10TH OCTOBER 1884, No. 1114, REVENUE.

Resolution—dated 19th August 1884, No. 2893.

Submitted to Government.

2. Under G.O., No. 759, dated 17th June 1884, the divisions are as follows:—
Collector with Assistant or Temporary Deputy Collector.

Head Assistant Collector
General Deputy Collector

{ Nellore.
Kávali.
Gúdúr.
Rápúr.
Venkatagiri.
Pólúr.
Atmakúr.
Udayagiri.

This arrangement abolishes the divided revenue and magisterial jurisdiction which has obtained for some years past in Nellore district.

Mr. Grose now proposes to give to the Deputy Collector on general duty the magisterial charge of Kávali and the northern half of Nellore taluk, which would give him the old charge of the Head Assistant Collector; but this would again introduce the divided jurisdictions, and the Board suggest that a simpler plan would be to give to the Deputy Collector the revenue and magisterial charge of Kávali.

4. The divisions would thus be as follows:—

Collector Nellore.
Deputy Collector { Atmakúr.
Udayagiri.
Kávali.
Head Assistant { Gúdúr.
Rápúr.
Venkatagiri.
Pólúr.

10TH OCTOBER 1884, No. 1114, REVENUE.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 19th August 1884, No. 2893:—

Read—the following letter from J. GROSE, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 4th August 1884, No. 3955:—

In G.O., 8th June 1869, No. 1617, Government approved of the proposal made by Mr. Dykes and supported by the Board that the General Duty Deputy Collector when moved from Nayadupet to Atmakūr should have magisterial and revenue charge of Udayagiri and Atmakūr and magisterial charge of Kávali, leaving to the Collector the revenue charge of Kávali.

2. In G.O., 1st February 1877, No. 483, the present charges are sanctioned; and they give the Collector revenue charge of Nellore and Gúdúr and magisterial charge of the taluk of Nellore, south of the Pennér. The magisterial charges were settled by G.O., 8th July 1878, No. 1355, when I had informed Government (Board's Proceedings, 18th May 1878, No. 1351) that after actual experience I had found that the magisterial charge of the Nellore taluk south of the river, including the town, was as much as the Collector could manage directly, and (letter to Chief Secretary, 24th June 1878, No. 509) that the Head Assistant Magistrate and the General Duty Deputy Collector would have to exchange magisterial divisions when the Deputy Collector is moved to Atmakūr.

3. A change began to be contemplated when Mr. Lee-Warner, who was acting during my absence, wrote the letter disposed of in Board's Proceedings, 19th April 1884, Mis. No. 3252. He says there: "I see no objection to placing Atmakūr and Udayagiri under a First-class Deputy Collector, and the Collector will then have in his own charge the Nellore and Kávali taluks, which will not be more than he can manage with the assistance of an Assistant or Deputy Collector's Personal Assistant;" and Government, in G.O., 17th June 1884, No. 75 say: "The redistribution of divisional charges as proposed by the Collector is approved;" and again: "It is presumed that the Collector contemplates the retention of the magisterial charge of the Kávali taluk in his own hands."

4. I have the honor to submit that, in my opinion, it will be better if the magisterial charge of Kávali is given to the Deputy Collector as was at first intimated. The enclosed statement seems to me to show that the official of the status of Deputy Collector should be larger than the mere charge of Atmakūr and Udayagiri. The Kávali taluk, as a whole, is as near to Atmakūr as to Nellore. It is still my opinion that the charge of the Nellore taluk south of the river is as much as the District Magistrate can manage, and, as it includes the town, it is the best suited to his position. The present arrangement which gives the revenue charge and the magisterial charge of one taluk (Gúdúr) to different officers has always worked well.

5. I think the Deputy Collector should have magisterial and revenue charge of Atmakūr and Udayagiri and magisterial charge of Kávali and the portion of the Nellore taluk which is north of the river. When there is a passed assistant in the district, he can have the revenue charge of Kávali (as he now has of Gúdúr) and the magisterial charge of the part of the Nellore taluk which lies north of the river.
