READ—the following letter from P. V. LUKE, Esq., Chief Superintendent, Government Telegraphs, Madras Division, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 10th May 1884, No. 948 :—

It has been decided to amalgamate the Telegraph with the Post office at Devála, and the combined office, when the change has been carried out, will be in the present Post office building.

2. I have the honor to ask if there is any objection to the transfer to the Postal department of the building now used for a Telegraph office. The Postmaster-General, Madras, informs me he requires it as a residence for the Signaller and the Inspector of Post office, Nilgiri district.

ORDER—dated 19th May 1884, No. 1259 W., Public Works.

The Government have no objection to the building now used as a Telegraph office at Devála being utilised in the manner suggested by the Superintendent of Telegraphs, when the combination of the Post and Telegraph offices at that station has been effected.
