SIR,

With reference to the enclosed extract from the List of Disallowances from the Travelling Allowance Bill of the Ganjam Division for the month of July/83 I have the honor to state that under the explanation given by Mr. Varfor I consider that he was very wise to land at Calingapatam instead of at Gopalpore, & to request you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government authorizing the Examiner to pass the Travelling allowance claimed by Mr. Varfor.

I have the honor to be
Sir
your most obedient servant
