If Government consider that the cases of the lascars and the Superintendent referred to by the Superintending Engineer 5th. Circle, can be brought under the provisions of Section 100 Rule 8 of the Civil Pension Code, there appears no objection to personal allowances as recommended by the Superintending Engineer being sanctioned, provided such a course is found to be cheaper than granting a pension.

2. Attention is also drawn to letter to Director General of the Post Office of India No. 2684 dated 10th. September 1879, printed as a foot note to pages 45 and 46 of the Financial Code.
