GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following letter from G. HAMNETT, Esq., Inspector-General of Registration, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government (through the Accountant-General, Fort St. George), dated Pedda Ganjam, 1st March 1882, T. No. 445:—

I have been in correspondence with the Registrar of Kistna, and with the Collector of the District since July 1881, respecting the transfer of seven Sub-Registry Offices from the charge of Revenue subordinate officials to special officers, but deferred taking any decided action in the matter until I had an opportunity of personally inspecting the offices in the district and satisfying myself of the necessity for so doing. This opportunity having been afforded me during my present tour, I have no hesitation in recommending that the following offices be transferred to Special Sub-Registrars, viz.:—

	Receipts in 1880-81.
	RS.
Dezvada	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	639
Nuzvid	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	512
Répalle	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	851
Tenali	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	530
Bápatla	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	445
Ponnur	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	510
Narsaraopet	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	424

2. Kistna, like Bellary, has been backward as regards registration, and of the sixteen Registration Offices in the district, only three are presided over by special officers, while the remaining thirteen are under the control of Deputy Tahsildars and Serishtadars, whose revenue and judicial duties leave them little or no leisure to devote to the promotion of registration. The result is, as might be expected, that registration has not advanced so much as it has done in districts where special officers were more extensively employed to do the work.

3. The aggregate receipts from registration in Kistna during 1880-81 were Rs. 10,870. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 7,853, leaving a surplus of Rs. 3,017, which may be appropriated towards the improvement of the existing supervising agency. The receipts shown against each office are insufficient to cover the charge for each, viz., Rs. 552 per annum, but it is almost certain that with the appointment of special officers the receipts will increase sufficiently to cover the charge.

4. The local subordinate officers, with whom I have conferred on the subject, agree with me in thinking that the time has arrived when some change should be made. Mr. Horsfall, the Collector of the District, says, "I see no objection to the appointment of Special Sub-Registrars wherever the receipts are sufficient to meet the cost of the necessary establishments," but it is hopeless to expect any marked increase in the receipts as long as the offices are in charge of officials who have other more important and responsible duties to attend to. The Tahsildar of Nandigama, a shrewd intelligent officer, pointed out to me the duties devolving on a Deputy Tahsildar and Serishtadar, respectively, and showed conclusively, I thought, that the nomination of these officials as Sub-Registrars, since their investment with the powers of a Second-class Magistrate, was a mistake; and I have the honor, for reasons stated, to request that you will be pleased to obtain the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council to the transfer of the seven offices named to Special Sub-Registrars from the 1st April 1882; to the employment of the following establishment at each office, viz:—

One Sub-Registrar	30	0	0
One Gumastah not less than	10	0	0
One Peon	6	0	0
Contingencies	0	8	0
Total	43	8	0

and to the renting of a house and the employment of a night-watchman and sweeper wherever necessary.

5. Sanction is also requested to the erection of new offices on the standard design at each station, and to the requisite orders for doing so being issued in the Public Works Department.

6. A tabular statement is enclosed.

ORDER—dated 28th March 1882, No. 268, Judicial.

The several recommendations made at the close of paragraph 1 are approved and sanctioned.

2. Paragraph 5 will be referred to the Public Works Department for the issue of the necessary orders.
