Proceedings of the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, dated Simla, 31st May 1884, No. 1369.

Read—the following extract from a Revenue despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to the Government of India, dated 30th April 1884, No. 29 :—

Paragraph 2. I take this opportunity of drawing your attention to the great inconvenience which arises from the despatch of officers on special duty to Europe without previously settling the terms on which they are to be employed. The existing rules preclude the grant of a higher rate of salary than two-thirds of an officer's Indian pay, and it is important that these should be maintained. If in any case the circumstances are so exceptional that your Government deem it necessary to recommend some departure therefrom, I request that your Excellency will communicate with me beforehand (by telegraph if necessary) so as to avoid the contingency of an officer's coming to Europe with the understanding that your Government will recommend him for the grant of extraordinary privileges which the Secretary of State may possibly not be disposed to sanction.

Order—

Copy forwarded to the several departments of the Government of India and to all local Governments and Administrations for information.
