GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

Proceedings of the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce (Pay and Allowances—Travelling Allowance—Rule), dated Simla, 29th May 1884, No. 1286.

Read—the following letters regarding the rates of passage-money to be paid to a second-class officer whose pay is less than Rs. 200 a-month and also to an officer of the third-class for journeys in a steamer where there is no middle-class or second-class accommodation, or where there are only two classes—"upper-class" and "third or lower class" deck :—

Letter from the Government of Bengal, No. 656-T.F., dated 2nd May 1884, and enclosures.

Letter from the Comptroller of Assam, No. 1—590, dated the 22nd April 1884.

Resolution—

Section 58 of the Travelling Allowance Code provides for travelling allowance by sea and river steamer in cases in which there are three classes of accommodation. It now appears that in some steamers there are only two classes, while in others there are four classes of accommodation. It is, therefore, deemed necessary to make provision for those exceptional cases.

2. The Governor-General in Council considers that this should be done in a manner similar to the provisions for railway travelling in section 53 of the Code, and directs the addition of the following note to section 58 of the Code :—

"If there are only two classes of accommodation in a steamer, an officer of the second class is entitled to passage-money by the higher of the two classes of accommodation, and an officer of the third class to passage-money by the lower of the two.

"If there are four classes of accommodation in a steamer, an officer of the second class will be entitled to passage-money by the second of the four classes of accommodation, and an officer of the third class to passage-money by the third of those four classes."

Order—

Ordered that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the other departments of the Government of India, several local Governments and Administrations, all heads of departments under this department, Comptroller and Auditor General, and to all Accountants-General.
