As the Consulting Architect's Office will now very shortly be ready for occupation & the large central room now used as his Office will thus be vacated the Undersigned begs to suggest that it be fitted and furnished to hold the books from the R. E. Library, to give facilities for Officers or visitors for writing notes &c and to enable the Officers of the Department to have their lunches there together instead of as now in their own cubicals.

2. The R. E. Library is now seldom frequented because it is so out of the way. Some Officers do not now subscribe to it. It is presumed all would under the proposed arrangement. If placed where now suggested it might be improved by valuable additions and Engineering and Architectural Periodicals might be on the Table for perusal instead of being circulated as is now done. Perhaps a writer & pen might have to be entertained for the Library.

3. Visitors might also sit in the Library when waiting for interviews.

4. A common room where officers might meet at luncheon would facilitate business and promote harmony of procedure.
