READ—the following letter from Colonel B. H. W. MAGRATH, Commissary-General, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Madras, 22nd July 1884, No. T.B. 982:—

I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to authorise the erection on the site of the new mule lines on the Pudupet plain of one of the eight quarters sanctioned for construction on the esplanade.

2. The warrant or non-commissioned officer in charge of the cattle will then be able to reside on the spot and exercise the needful supervision.

3. I have ascertained that His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief approves of this proposal, subject to the orders of Government.

No. 3552, Military.

Approved and transferred to the Public Works Department, for issue of the necessary orders if a suitable site be available on the Pudupet plain.

(By Order.)
