its enclosure reporting on the death fully explained in the Asst^g Engineer's

Under these circumstances I agree with the Executive Engineer in Considering that the Cooly is ^{family} not entitled to any Gratuity in as much as the Contractor's agent employed the man, nor was the work on which he was employed attended with any extraordinary bodily risk. See Section 157 of the Civil Pension Code Sixth Edition.

Should you consider otherwise,
I will submit an application for Gratuity.

I have the honor to be

Sir
