G. Rungiah Naidoo, Draftsman 2nd class on the Establishment of this office was directed to proceed to Madura on duty. He was obliged to stay there from the 9th March to 30th July 1884 and as under the existing rules of Travelling allow-ance code he will not be entitled to daily allowance for more than 10 days I have the honor to recommend and solicit the sanction of Govern-ment for his exemption from the operation of section 29 of the Civil Tra-velling allowance code.

If the Draftsman be exempted from the operation of Sec 29 C. I. a. Code, he will draw daily allowance at 8 annas for the period he was on duty at Madras.

If he be not exempted, he will get nothing at all, beyond free passage, & daily allowance for the first 10 days at Madras.

He was no doubt put to extra expense ^{during} for the period he was away from his home.

The daily allowance, if admitted, will take the place of batta or deputation allowance.
