READ—the following letter from R. B. BUCKLEY, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (Civil Works—Telegraph), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 29th August 1884, No. 220 T. :—

I am directed to invite your attention to resolution, No. 303 T., of 25th October 1883, referring to Telephone Companies in India, which was published in part I of the Gazette of India of the 3rd November 1883. It is thought that the last paragraph of rule I is not so generally known as is desirable, and I am, therefore, to request that the heads of all Government offices may be informed that such offices may not be connected with telephone exchanges worked by licensed companies; but that whenever it is desired to establish telephonic communication between a Government office and any other building, application must be made to the Director-General of Telegraphs, who is prepared to erect and maintain such communication in any part of the country on terms which can be learnt on application to that officer.

ORDER—dated 20th September 1884, No. 2318 W., Public Works.

Communicated to the officers of the Public Works Department, in continuation of proceedings, No. 2127 W., dated 28th August 1884.
