GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

GENERAL.

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras
Public Works Department

Fort William, 17th January 1884

Sir,

In continuation of Public Works Department letter No 1183 by dated 3rd September 1883, I am directed to state that the work of revising the Government of India Public Works Code, on which Mr. E. J. Anthony Accountant 1st Grade is employed, has not been completed, and it is very desirable that his services should be retained in this Secretariat until the end of March next, when it is hoped the work will be completed. I am to enquire, therefore, whether His Excellency will spare Mr. Anthony services for this further period, on the same conditions as before, namely that his place on the Madras Establishment should not be filled up.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant

C. M. Walker
