 I do not see that there is any need of altering the scale of Petty
 and office establishments, as there have been reduction under the Chief Engineer's orders, so as to meet the requirements -
 If an order of Govt.
 is required, to satisfy the Examiner, it is a simple matter to give it.

 MADRAS,

To

The Secretary to Government,
 Public Works Department.
 Madras, 28th August 1884.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 1966 W. dated the 11th.
 Instant directing the formation of the P.W. Workshops and Stores into an ordinary P.W. Division under the Superintending Engineer 5th. Circle, I have the honor to request issue of orders of Government as to the scale of Petty and Office Establishments to be retained for the future, shewing clearly the Establishments chargeable to the Workshops as distinguished from those chargeable to Stores.

2. If it is intended that the special salary attached to the post of General Superintendent is to be abolished and that the Officer holding the appointment shall be allowed to draw pay and allowances of rank, a special order in supersession of G.O. No. 2899 dated 7th. October 1864 is necessary.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant.
