Simla, 7th October 1884.

Sir,

Referring to correspondence ending with your No. 1064 W, dated 28th April 1884, I am directed to state that the work of revising the Public Works Code has not yet been finished, nor is it possible to say definitely how long the work will occupy, as, since the original decision to revise Volume I only of the Code, it has been found necessary to take up the compilation of three completely new Volumes connected with Rules for Railways. Under these circumstances the Government of India desires to retain the services of Mr. E. J. Anthony, Accountant 1st grade, from 1st October 1884 until such time as the Codes are completed, and

From J. H. TAYLOR, Esq., Lieutenant, R.N.R., Master Attendant, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 11th March 1884, No. 2393.

Administrative department.

During the recent inspection of the port of Cocanada by the Hon. H. E. Sullivan, Colonel Shaw-Stewart and myself, the Port officer, Cocanada, was directed to submit a revised estimate for the extension of the groynes at that port to include charges for executive supervision and all other items. He has accordingly forwarded the one enclosed, amounting to Rs. (72,900) seventy-two thousand and nine hundred, and I solicit that the Government will be pleased to accord early sanction to the same. From personal observation and opinions gathered on the spot, I am confident the work will be completed considerably within the estimate.
