To the Secy to the G.of I. P.W.D.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No 1179 R dated 7th October 1884, I am directed to state that this Government has no objection to retention by the Govt of India of Mr E. T. Anthony's services until such time as the revision of the P. W. Code has been completed. I am however to forward herewith, copy of a note, No 531 dy 16th Octr 1884, from the Exr P. W. Accounts, intimating that as Mr Anthony's services are now required for an indefinite period, he would be glad if the Govt of India would permit the entertainment of a temporary 5th grade Accountant to make up the numerical strength of his office.

I have no objection to offer. As the period for which Mr. Anthony's services are required by the Government of India is indefinite, I would be glad if that Government would now permit the entertainment of a temporary 5th. Grade Accountant to make up the numerical strength for this Office.
