During the recent inspection of the port of Cocanada by the Hon. H. E. Sullivan, Colonel Shaw-Stewart and myself, the Port officer, Cocanada, was directed to submit a revised estimate for the extension of the groynes at that port to include charges for executive supervision and all other items. He has accordingly forwarded the one enclosed, amounting to Rs. (72,900) seventy-two thousand and nine hundred, and I solicit that the Government will be pleased to accord early sanction to the same. From personal observation and opinions gathered on the spot, I am confident the work will be completed considerably within the estimate.
