understanding that during the period of the Christmas holidays no extra allowances

Privilege Leave: -

Forwarding an application for 2 months and 18 days on behalf of Mr. Davidson with a recommendation that the leave be taken in continuation of the Xmas Holidays. Proposing Captain Romilly
for charge of the Coimbatore Division.

C.A.W.

It is not clear to me that Mr. Davidson can get his leave in continuation of the Xmas holidays.
Besides how can we say that Capt. Romilly is not to claim allowance (Rs 100 a month) for the holidays during which he will hold charge?
I have no doubt we will be glad to give Mr. Davidson the holidays in addition to the full privilege leave if it can be done.
What time is it to be managed?

To D.W.

I think that the
leave is admissible
under Section 13, Rule
1. of the Civil Leave Code. The draft order
does not contemplate Captain Romilly being deprived of any allowances which he would be entitled to under Code rules. It is not proposed to adopt the S. E.'s suggestion in the matter which is opposed to precedent

C.S. 15-11-84

C.A.W.

I do not quite see it. Mr Davidson would have to hand over the Division to Capt. Hambley coming before the holidays, but he makes it a condition that the officer acting for him is not to receive any extra allowance during the holidays. Will Capt Hambley consent to this? and will I accept this notification as regular?

C.A.W.

The arrangement regarding Mr Davidson's leave now seems to me feasible under Section 13(1) of C.L. Code. The only thing now is - should the notification say "in continuation of Xmas holidays"?

To D.W.

Unless the G. expressly gives the required permission, it will not be clear to the Supty. Eng. that the request is granted. The leave will not be notified in the Gazette "Privilege" leave never is.
