READ—the following papers :—

G.O., dated 19th January 1884, Mis. No. 175, Judicial.

Read—the following letter from F. BRANDT, Esq., Collector of Nilgiris, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, dated Ootacamund, 8th January 1884, No. 3 :—

With reference to G.O., dated 6th November 1883, No. 2923, Judicial, and your demi-official of the 16th idem, I have the honor to inform you that Mr. Lawson having very obligingly consented to allow the Head Assistant Collector to occupy part of the "Chinchona" bungalow at Naduvatam during the months for which it is proposed that the Head Assistant be permitted to reside at that place, no extra expense will be entailed on Government in this respect by the proposed change; the Head Assistant Collector will hold his office in a tent at some distance from the bungalow.

2. It only remains to make provision for the three clerks attached to Mr. Wedderburn's office, and for the deputy tahsildar and his office establishment.

3. A contractor is prepared to construct a building, consisting of mud walls and thatched roof, with flooring, plastering, &c., and a small treasury room, the walls of which are to be of brick-in-mud, with iron barred door, with necessary doors and windows and verandah, for Rs. 1,160.

This will give one room 20' x 15' for the deputy tahsildar to live in, with back room thereto 21' x 8', small treasury room 12' x 15' adjoining this, office room 20' x 15', and adjoining this again a clerk's room 15' x 15' at back of the three rooms last above described, three rooms each 65' x 8' for clerks' residence.

Detached from this, another building will be required for the Head Assistant's head clerk, and other two clerks and two peons. This can be put up at a cost of Rs. 200, total Rs. 1,360; for cost of removal of records, &c., from below to Naduvatam and back again, Rs. 100 may be put down, in all, say, Rs. 1,500.

4. I would ask sanction to incur this expenditure at once, so that the move be made not later than the 1st March. For special provision of funds, I must ask Government, as there is no provision in the district budget, nor can savings be effected elsewhere in the latter.

5. Some return on the outlay might be obtained were rent charged for the use of the buildings, and supposing the deputy tahsildar were to pay Rs. 7 a-month, the head clerk of the Head Assistant Collector's office, Rs. 5, and the other clerks Rs. 3, Rs. 84 might be realized for 3½ months; but these officials could not have their families with them in these buildings, and would have to maintain establishments elsewhere, and I should be in favor of no change being made.

6. I would suggest that the buildings be allowed to remain standing through the monsoon till the following year: there are no whiteants at Naduvatam, and it would be probably cheaper to repair than to sell off the materials at the end of one season and rebuild anew, next.

He can be put up at a cost of Rs. 200.

Order—dated 19th January 1884, Mis. No. 175, Judicial.

Transferred to the Financial Department with the remark that if funds can be provided, the Judicial Department approve of the proposed expenditure.

The proposal to expend Rs. 1,360 on the construction of — for the establishment of the Head Assistant Collector, the deputy tahsildar and his office establishment, approved and sanctioned.

From H. Brandt Esq.

Collector of Nilgiris,

The Chief Secretary
to Government,
Judicial Department.

Sir,
With reference to G.O. dated 6th November 1883, No. 2923 Judicial, and your dem. official of the 16th Nov. I have the honour to inform you that Mr. Lawson having very obligingly consented to allow the Head Assistant Collector to occupy part of the "Chichoni" Bungalow at Naduvatam during the months for which it is proposed that the Head Assistant be permitted to reside at that place, no extra expense will be entailed on Government in this respect by the proposed change; the Head Assistant Collector will hold his office in a Tent at some distance from the Bungalow.

2. It only remains to make provision for the three clerks attached to Mr. Middleton's Office, and for the Deputy Tahsildar and his Office Establishment.
3. A contractor is prepared to construct a building, consisting of pound walls and thatched roof, with flooring, plastering &c., and a small treasury room the walls of which are to be of brick-in-powder, with iron-banded door, with necessary doors and windows and verandah for Rs. 1160.

This will give one room 20' x 15' for the Deputy Tahsildar to live in, with back room 21' x 8' small treasury room 12' x 15' adjoining this, office room 20' x 15' and adjoining this again a clerk's room 15' x 15' at back of the three rooms last above described, three rooms each 16' x 8' for clerk's residence.

Detached from this another building will be required for the Head Assistant's Head Clerk and other two clerks and his boys: this can be put up at a cost of Rs. 200: total Rs. 1360.

for cost of removal of records &c. from below to Madhavaram and back again Rs. 100 may be put down: in all say, Rs. 1500.
4. I should not mention to incur this expenditure at once, so that the move be made not later than the 1st March:
for special provision of funds I must ask Government as there is no provision in the District Budget, nor can savings be effected elsewhere in the latter.

5. Some return on the outlay might be obtained were rent charged for the use of the buildings, and supposing the Deputy Sahildar were to pay Rs. 7 a month, the Head Clerk of the Head Assistant Collector's office Rs. 5, and the other Clerks, Rs. 3, Rs. 84 might be realized for 3½ months: but these officials could not leave their families with them in these buildings and would have to maintain establishments elsewhere and I should be in favour of no change being made.

4. I would suggest that the buildings be allowed to remain standing through the monsoon till the following year:
there are no white ants at Madhavaram, and it would be probably cheaper to repair than to pull off the materials at the end of one year and rebuild anew, next.
