13TH FEBRUARY 1884, No. 243, PUBLIC.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From A. MACKENZIE, Esq., C.S., Secretary to the Government of India, Home department (Public), to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Calcutta, 29th December 1883, No. 55-1864.

The Governor-General in Council considers it desirable to republish, for general information, the orders issued by the Government of India in Notification No. 216 (General department), dated 9th September 1842, prohibiting civil and military servants of the Government from entering into pecuniary arrangements with members of the service or department to which they belong in connection with the resignation of any appointment held by them. Officers of Government are warned that any violation of these orders will be severely visited on the offender.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

The 9th September 1842.

It having come to the knowledge of Government that very erroneous impressions are entertained on the subject of pecuniary arrangements referable to the resignation of appointments, the Honorable the President in Council is pleased to give notice that all such arrangements are prohibited, and that on proof of any appointment, civil or military, having been resigned under such circumstances, the nomination consequent on such resignation will be cancelled and the parties concerned suspended the service in Public Orders pending the pleasure of the Honorable the Court of Directors.

By order of the Honorable the President in Council,

E. A. BUSHBY,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

ORDER—dated 13th February 1884, No. 243, Public.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council directs that the foregoing papers be communicated to all officers of the civil and military departments and published in the Official Gazette. It is observed, however, that the Notification of 1842 has already been republished in the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 23rd May 1882. His Excellency in Council further resolves that a copy of the above notification be forwarded to each member of the Covenanted Civil Service for information and guidance, and that the special attention of all officers concerned be drawn to the following provisions of the law relating to this subject:—

Section III, 49 George III, c. 126.

"III. And be it further declared and enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act, if any person or persons shall sell or bargain for the sale of, or receive, have, or take any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward, or profit, directly or indirectly, or any promise, agreement, covenant, contract, bond, or assurance, or shall by any way, device, or means contract or agree to receive or have any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward or profit, directly or indirectly, and also if any person or persons shall purchase or bargain for the purchase of, or give or pay any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward or profit, or make or enter into any promise, agreement, covenant, contract, bond, or assurance to give or pay any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward or profit, or shall by any way, means, or device contract or agree to give or pay any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward or profit, directly or indirectly, for any office, commission, place or employment specified or described in the said recited Act, or this Act, or within the true intent or meaning of the said Act or this Act, or for any deputation thereto, or for any part, parcel, or participation of the profits thereof, or for any appointment or nomination thereto or resignation thereof, or for the consent or consents, or voice or voices of any person or persons to any such appointment, nomination, or resignation, then and in every such case every such person, and also every person who shall wilfully and knowingly aid, abet, or assist such person therein, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor."

"Persons buying or selling offices, or receiving or paying money or rewards for offices, guilty of a misdemeanor."
