Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that I have rented a house here for Rs 45 per mensem. This includes also the rent of a separate building in the compound which is well suited for an office - and amply large enough for the Division Office Establishment. I propose to give up one room out of the three in the house to do my own office work in; and under these circumstances consider that one third the rent of the house, i.e. Rs 15 per mensem, may fairly be charged to Government. I have therefore the honor to ask permission to do so.
