Supth reply is certainly not quite clear. I take it that the P.W. mountain originally referred to were and for sale to local market and that now there are only 100 left in the hill station which could be transferred to V. C. D.

The P.W. road can under Sth clause of para 1986 of Code & may be purchased as they will value the stone value & P.W. can be issued at once to Sanyam.

In his letter No: 1483 of 22 Feb. the Genl Supt.
S. to Stores asked for sanction to purchase,
in the local market, 800 English Mammoth belonging to the Military Dept.

He was asked in affidavit 381 D of 28
Feb. why the Mammoth, being sold properly, could not be obtained direct from the Military Dept. instead of through the local market. Code rules not allowing of such purchases.

The reply of 13.3.84 is that the Commissary of Ordnance has only 100 Mammoth for issue to the S. to S.

This is scarcely a reply to the enquiry made.

Before for can sanction the proposed purchase, the Genl
Supt. should show
