READ—the following letter from Major D. J. S. McLEOD, Deputy Quartermaster-General, to the Assistant Quartermaster-General, Bangalore Division, dated Ootacamund, 20th March 1884, No. 1875 :—

His No. 605, dated 8th March 1884, on letter, No. 608, dated 8th idem, from the barrack-master, Bangalore.

Informs, in reply, that in future the department of supply of wooden gratings to lavatories and bath-rooms is to be the Commissariat Department, as laid down in G.O.G., No. 128, dated 21st February 1881, page 11, and not the Public Works Department, which latter department is said to have supplied such articles at Bangalore now and then.

2. The above articles will accordingly be accounted for, by corps, &c., and barrack-masters, as barrack furniture.

No. 1876.

Forwarded to the Chief Engineer to Government, Public Works Department, with a request that, to save complication resulting from the supply of the same article by two departments, he will be so good as to issue instructions to officers of the Public Works Department that the supply of gratings for lavatories, &c., should in no case be made by that department.

(By Order.)
