G.O., dated 28th March 1884, No. 1594, Military.

Read—the following extract from a Military Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, dated 28th February 1884, No. 19:—

11. Captain L. Langley, R.E., has been informed that, as your Government have no objection to the prolongation of his absence from India for six months beyond his two years' furlough, six months of the period spent by him at the School of Military Engineering, Chatham, will reckon as additional to his furlough under the terms of paragraphs XI and XIII of the Regulations of May 1883. Captain Langley will, therefore, not be due in India till 24th July 1884, but he has not been granted extension of furlough.

Order—dated 28th March 1884, No. 1594, Military.

Transferred to the Public Works Department, with the request that the correspondence ending with and including the Secretary of State's present reply may be communicated to the Military Department for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.
