a "Municipality" and a

Such bodies would, thus,

To Mr. C. Vincent

It is contended that because a Court of Wards is financially independent of the Govt. it is therefore a
"Native State". A Municipality, and a Port Trust, would also be a "Native State" on this assumption.
Orders are requested as to further disposal.

To Mr.

To me it seems almost that Mr. Vincent should have to ask leave for permission to departing one of its officers for service under the Court of Wards. However, the case is not quite clear, he might advise C. to sign the matter if he is not satisfied.

Better that Govt. should make the arrangement.

reasons for requiring such consent are ~~that~~ the character, and, ~~in the opinion of H.E. the Governor~~ a case like the present, in which the private estate of a minor, controlled by the Court of Wards, is being visited to check expenditure. The Examiner P.W.

opinion that a Court of
