G.O., dated 21st March 1884, No. 1429, Military.

Read—the following papers :—

From the Public Works Department, dated 12th March 1884, No. 601 C.

From the Adjutant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated 19th March 1884, No. 139.

In returning the correspondence referred to the Commander-in-Chief (Military Department memorandum, No. 1270, dated 14th instant), I am directed to say that, as the furlough granted Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle in G.O.G., dated 12th July 1878 was not rendered necessary by illness contracted on field service, Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle is not, under the regulations quoted in the margin, entitled to count such furlough towards service for pension.

Clause 154, Indian Army Circulars of 1881, and proceedings of Madras Government, dated 23rd October 1883, No. 5731.

2. Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle, on the date prior to his transfer to the half-pay list, had completed only 18 years, 8 months and 4 days' service towards retirement.

Order—dated 21st March 1884, No. 1429, Military.

The Adjutant-General's letter communicated to the Public Works Department.

2. Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle's request, to count a part of his last sick leave as service for pension, is inadmissible.

Letter from General E. A. Foord, R.E.
Medical certificate from the Zillah Surgeon, Kurnool.
Medical certificate of the Medical Board, Madras.
Medical report by Dr. James Rodger, M.D., my present medical attendant.

Having been invalided in 1878 and having been now three years on sick leave and upwards of two years on temporary half-pay, and finding from my medical advisers that there is little or no probability of my return to active service, I venture to bring under the consideration of Government the exceptional nature of my case, in the hope that I may be allowed to count for pension 18 months' service or such period of my leave in England as may be necessary to entitle me to the rate of pension allowed to a Major, and the additional pension due to my length of service, which would further entitle me to the bonus granted to Public Works officers under order of the Government of India, No. 2079, of the 31st July 1879. I am induced to hope the Government will consider my case a special one as my health entirely and finally broke down during my employment as District Engineer of Kurnool in the famine of 1877-78, and the exposure and sufferings I there underwent have left me an almost helpless invalid.

Officers who on active service lose their health are allowed to count a portion of their sick leave in England towards pension, and several officers of superior grade to mine have been granted an extra year's service on account of famine duty.

The accompanying letter from General E. A. Foord, R.E., Secretary to Government in the Department of Public Works, copies of medical certificates recommending my being invalided, &c., &c., refer to the service I rendered during the famine and the consequent loss of my health.

I would further beg to bring under the notice of the Government that, during my leave in England in 1864 and 1867, I obtained an appointment in the English convict service as deputy governor of Chatham convict prison and devoted myself to the acquirement of a full knowledge of the convict system in England; and that, on my return to Madras, the knowledge I had so obtained was at once appreciated and made use of by the Government of the Presidency.

ORDER—dated 16th April 1884, No. 985 W., Public Works.

Communicated to Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle, with reference to his letter dated 7th February 1884.

2. Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle's request to be admitted to the special concessions sanctioned to officers whose services were dispensed with by the Public Works Department, on reduction of establishment in 1879, will be referred to the Government of India.

Letter—from

Colonel J. SHAW-STEWART, R.E.,
Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Public Works Department,

To

The SECRETARY to the GOVERNMENT of INDIA,
Public Works Department.

Sir,

I am directed to forward, for the favorable consideration of the Government of India, the accompanying application from Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle, late an Executive Engineer of the Public Works Department, in which, for reasons therein set forth, he requests that he may be admitted to the benefit of the concessions granted to officers whose services were dispensed with on reduction of establishment in 1879.

2. From the accompanying copy of proceedings in the Military Department, No. 1429, dated 21st March 1884, it will be seen that Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle's request to be allowed to count as service for pension the furlough taken in July 1878, and at the end of which his services were replaced at the disposal of the Military Department, has been rejected on the ground that the illness which necessitated his furlough was not contracted on field service. Seeing, however, that the illness in question was contracted in the service of Government in the Public Works Department, at a time when the exigencies of famine duty pressed severely on all those engaged on relief operations, His Excellency the Governor in Council would be glad if the benefit of the famine concessions granted under the Financial Resolution of the Government of India, No. 2079, dated 31st July 1879, could be extended to Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle, who, stationed as he was in Kurnool, one of the most unhealthy and severely tried of the Madras districts, must have experienced in an unusual degree the ill-effects of continued physical and mental strain.

3. From the accompanying copy of despatch to the Secretary of State, No. 10, dated 12th February 1880, it will be seen that it was at one time thought that Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle would, in ordinary course, have obtained those concessions, and the Secretary of State was so informed; but it was subsequently ascertained that he had not the requisite qualifying service to entitle him to retire under paragraph 5, clause I, of Financial Resolution, No. 2079, dated 31st July 1879. It thus became necessary to replace him at the disposal of the Military Department.

4. His Excellency the Governor in Council would be glad if, in the special circumstances of his case, Lieutenant-Colonel Hindle could now be admitted to the benefit of the concessions which were granted to officers in a similar position, but more fortunately placed as regards length of service, when their connection with the Public Works Department was summarily cut short.

I have the honor to be,
