Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th February 1884, Mis. No. 1310.

Read—the following letter from H. ST. A. GOODRICH, Esq., Acting Collector of Bellary, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 28th January 1884, No. 314.

At Hospet a private reading-room has lately been started. The committee of the institution, of which Mr. Russell is the president, request that the old kotwal chavadi, in the main street of Hospet, may be made over to them. The chavadi belongs to Government and is in a dilapidated condition. There is no chance of its ever being repaired, as it is not wanted for any purpose. There is another building which serves as the village chavadi. The site of the kotwal chavadi is a good one and is, according to the Head Assistant Collector, worth Rs. 300 or 400. This is no doubt a large sum, but looking to the nature of the institution and to the fact that in all there are not more than three institutions of the kind in the district, I think the consideration of price may be sacrificed and the building permanently made over to the reading-room. I have the honor to request you will be good enough to move the Board to obtain the orders of Government on the subject.

Resolution—dated 13th February 1884, Mis. No. 1310.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. The Board support the proposal so far as to recommend that the committee be allowed to occupy the building on the understanding that, if required hereafter by Government, they will vacate it upon three months' notice.
