Would not the addition of the word "Rupees" in all instances make the telegrams clearer?

As the telegrams stand in some cases we use the word — in others not.

To S. W.

As drawn out,
the Telegram will,
I think, be intelligible
to the Staff of India,
and the totals

given will enable them to check the figures. The repetition of the word "Rupees"
before every figure
would make the message much
longer.
