Read—the following paper:—

G.O., dated 25th February 1884, No. 894, Military.

Read—the following military despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Most Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 13th December 1883, No. 379.

With reference to paragraph 4 of my despatch to your Lordship, dated 31st July 1883, No. 248, I have received, through the Government of Bombay, the enclosed letter * of the Controller of Military Accounts, Bombay, dated 13th October 1873, in explanation of the delay which occurred in the transmission of Honorary Lieutenant E. J. Fleming's last pay certificate.

(Enclosure to Bombay letter No. 124 of 1883, paragraph 3).
* No. 1537.

2. It appears that though Lieutenant Fleming was permitted to leave India in April last in anticipation of the sanction of your Government, the General Order granting him a year's furlough was not issued till 10th August, and this delay in notifying the furlough is stated to be the cause of the certificate having been withheld. How the delay in the publication of the General Order occurred is not explained, but I desire to point out that it is not shown why this delay, even if it was unavoidable, need have hindered the issue of a certificate stating the date of commencement of the furlough and the rate of furlough pay. Such certificates are commonly issued by the pay departments to officers and warrant officers quitting India on sick leave in anticipation of the grant of furlough, and are acted on in this office, the period of furlough being ascertained from the copies of your General Orders subsequently transmitted.

3. I desire to draw your Lordship's attention to the correspondence noted in the margin relating to such cases as this. In that of Sub-Conductor H. Hebbard, it will be observed that the certificate, which is stated † to have been withheld pending a reply to your financial letter No. 360 of 1882, was, in fact, not forwarded from India till five months after the receipt of my reply; and I may add that it is not apparent why the fact of Sub-Conductor Hebbard having been recommended to me for a higher pension than that to which he was entitled should have prevented the issue of the ordinary certificate required to enable the Accountant-General at this office to pay the rate of pension due under regulation.

To India, No. 8, dated 4th Jan. 1883.

Copy forwarded for information, in continuation of Military Department Circular memorandum No. 558-A., dated the 15th March 1883, with a request that care may be taken to provide every warrant or non-commissioned officer proceeding to England with a last pay or pension certificate, or that in very exceptional cases where this cannot be done, that he be given an explanatory memorandum containing such details as will enable the India Office to issue pay or pension, pending the receipt of the proper document, to—

Such certificates are commonly issued by the pay departments to officers and warrant officers quitting India on sick leave in anticipation of the grant of furlough, and are acted on in this office, the period of furlough being ascertained from the copies of your General Orders subsequently transmitted.

3. I desire to draw your Lordship's attention to the correspondence noted in the margin relating to such cases as this. In that of Sub-Conductor H. Hebbard, it will be observed that the certificate, which is stated † to have been withheld pending a reply to your financial letter No. 360 of 1882, was, in fact, not forwarded from India till five months after the receipt of my reply; and I may add that it is not apparent why the fact of Sub-Conductor Hebbard having been recommended to me for a higher pension than that to which he was entitled should have prevented the issue of the ordinary certificate required to enable the Accountant-General at this office to pay the rate of pension due under regulation.

Read—the following military despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Most Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 13th December 1883, No. 379.

With reference to paragraph 4 of my despatch to your Lordship, dated 31st July 1883, No. 248, I have received, through the Government of Bombay, the enclosed letter * of the Controller of Military Accounts, Bombay, dated 13th October 1873, in explanation of the delay which occurred in the transmission of Honorary Lieutenant E. Such certificates are commonly issued by the pay departments to officers and warrant officers quitting India on sick leave in anticipation of the grant of furlough, and are acted on in this office, the period of furlough being ascertained from the copies of your General Orders subsequently transmitted.

3. I desire to draw your Lordship's attention to the correspondence noted in the margin relating to such cases as this. In that of Sub-Conductor H. Hebbard, it will be observed that the certificate, which is stated † to have been withheld pending a reply to your financial letter No. 360 of 1882, was, in fact, not forwarded from India till five months after the receipt of my reply; and I may add that it is not apparent why the fact of Sub-Conductor Hebbard having been recommended to me for a higher pension than that to which he was entitled should have prevented the issue of the ordinary certificate required to enable the Accountant-General at this office to pay the rate of pension due under regulation.

G.O., dated 25th February 1884, No. 894, Military.

Read—the following military despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Most Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 13th December 1883, No. 379.

With reference to paragraph 4 of my despatch to your Lordship, dated 31st July 1883, No. 248, I have received, through the Government of Bombay, the enclosed letter * of the Controller of Military Accounts, Bombay, dated 13th October 1873, in explanation of the delay which occurred in the transmission of Honorary Lieutenant E. How the delay in the publication of the General Order occurred is not explained, but I desire to point out that it is not shown why this delay, even if it was unavoidable, need have hindered the issue of a certificate stating the date of commencement of the furlough and the rate of furlough pay. Such certificates are commonly issued by the pay departments to officers and warrant officers quitting India on sick leave in anticipation of the grant of furlough, and are acted on in this office, the period of furlough being ascertained from the copies of your General Orders subsequently transmitted.

3. I desire to draw your Lordship's attention to the correspondence noted in the margin relating to such cases as this. In that of Sub-Conductor H. Hebbard, it will be observed that the certificate, which is stated † to have been withheld pending a reply to your financial letter No. 360 of 1882, was, in fact, not forwarded from India till five months after the receipt of my reply; and I may add that it is not apparent why the fact of Sub-Conductor Hebbard having been recommended to me for a higher pension than that to which he was entitled should have prevented the issue of the ordinary certificate required to enable the Accountant-General at this office to pay the rate of pension due under regulation.

Read—the following military despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Most Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 13th December 1883, No. 379.

With reference to paragraph 4 of my despatch to your Lordship, dated 31st July 1883, No. 248, I have received, through the Government of Bombay, the enclosed letter * of the Controller of Military Accounts, Bombay, dated 13th October 1873, in explanation of the delay which occurred in the transmission of Honorary Lieutenant E. How the delay in the publication of the General Order occurred is not explained, but I desire to point out that it is not shown why this delay, even if it was unavoidable, need have hindered the issue of a certificate stating the date of commencement of the furlough and the rate of furlough pay. Such certificates are commonly issued by the pay departments to officers and warrant officers quitting India on sick leave in anticipation of the grant of furlough, and are acted on in this office, the period of furlough being ascertained from the copies of your General Orders subsequently transmitted.

Such certificates are commonly issued by the pay departments to officers and warrant officers quitting India on sick leave in anticipation of the grant of furlough, and are acted on in this office, the period of furlough being ascertained from the copies of your General Orders subsequently transmitted.

3. I desire to draw your Lordship's attention to the correspondence noted in the margin relating to such cases as this. In that of Sub-Conductor H. Hebbard, it will be observed that the certificate, which is stated † to have been withheld pending a reply to your financial letter No. 360 of 1882, was, in fact, not forwarded from India till five months after the receipt of my reply; and I may add that it is not apparent why the fact of Sub-Conductor Hebbard having been recommended to me for a higher pension than that to which he was entitled should have prevented the issue of the ordinary certificate required to enable the Accountant-General at this office to pay the rate of pension due under regulation.

Read—the following military despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Most Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 13th December 1883, No. 379.

With reference to paragraph 4 of my despatch to your Lordship, dated 31st July 1883, No. 248, I have received, through the Government of Bombay, the enclosed letter * of the Controller of Military Accounts, Bombay, dated 13th October 1873, in explanation of the delay which occurred in the transmission of Honorary Lieutenant E. How the delay in the publication of the General Order occurred is not explained, but I desire to point out that it is not shown why this delay, even if it was unavoidable, need have hindered the issue of a certificate stating the date of commencement of the furlough and the rate of furlough pay. Such certificates are commonly issued by the pay departments to officers and warrant officers quitting India on sick leave in anticipation of the grant of furlough, and are acted on in this office, the period of furlough being ascertained from the copies of your General Orders subsequently transmitted.

3. I desire to draw your Lordship's attention to the correspondence noted in the margin relating to such cases as this. In that of Sub-Conductor H. Read—the following military despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Most Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 13th December 1883, No. 379.

With reference to paragraph 4 of my despatch to your Lordship, dated 31st July 1883, No. 248, I have received, through the Government of Bombay, the enclosed letter * of the Controller of Military Accounts, Bombay, dated 13th October 1873, in explanation of the delay which occurred in the transmission of Honorary Lieutenant E. How the delay in the publication of the General Order occurred is not explained, but I desire to point out that it is not shown why this delay, even if it was unavoidable, need have hindered the issue of a certificate stating the date of commencement of the furlough and the rate of furlough pay. Such certificates are commonly issued by the pay departments to officers and warrant officers quitting India on sick leave in anticipation of the grant of furlough, and are acted on in this office, the period of furlough being ascertained from the copies of your General Orders subsequently transmitted.

3. I desire to draw your Lordship's attention to the correspondence noted in the margin relating to such cases as this. In that of Sub-Conductor H. Hebbard, it will be observed that the certificate, which is stated † to have been withheld pending a reply to your financial letter No. 360 of 1882, was, in fact, not forwarded from India till five months after the receipt of my reply; and I may add that it is not apparent why the fact of Sub-Conductor Hebbard having been recommended to me for a higher pension than that to which he was entitled should have prevented the issue of the ordinary certificate required to enable the Accountant-General at this office to pay the rate of pension due under regulation.

G.O., dated 25th February 1884, No. 894, Military.

Read—the following military despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Most Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 13th December 1883, No. 379.

With reference to paragraph 4 of my despatch to your Lordship, dated 31st July 1883, No. 248, I have received, through the Government of Bombay, the enclosed letter * of the Controller of Military Accounts, Bombay, dated 13th October 1873, in explanation of the delay which occurred in the transmission of Honorary Lieutenant E. Such certificates are commonly issued by the pay departments to officers and warrant officers quitting India on sick leave in anticipation of the grant of furlough, and are acted on in this office, the period of furlough being ascertained from the copies of your General Orders subsequently transmitted.

3. I desire to draw your Lordship's attention to the correspondence noted in the margin relating to such cases as this. In that of Sub-Conductor H. Hebbard, it will be observed that the certificate, which is stated † to have been withheld pending a reply to your financial letter No. 360 of 1882, was, in fact, not forwarded from India till five months after the receipt of my reply; and I may add that it is not apparent why the fact of Sub-Conductor Hebbard having been recommended to me for a higher pension than that to which he was entitled should have prevented the issue of the ordinary certificate required to enable the Accountant-General at this office to pay the rate of pension due under regulation.

No. 259. Military despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Most Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council; dated India Office, London, 13th December 1883, No. 379.

With reference to para. 4 of my despatch to your Lordship, dated 31st July 1883, No. 248, I have received, through the Government of Bombay, the enclosed letter * of the Controller of Military Accounts, Bombay, dated 13th October 1883, in explanation of the delay which occurred in the transmission of Honorary Lieutenant E. J. Fleming's last pay certificate.

(Enclosure to Bombay letter No. 124 of 1883, para. 3.)
* No. 1537.

2. It appears that though Lieutenant Fleming was permitted to leave India in April last in anticipation of the sanction of your Government, the General Order granting him a year's furlough was not issued till 10th August, and this delay in notifying the furlough is stated to be the cause of the certificate having been withheld. How the delay in the publication of the General Order occurred is not explained, but I desire to point out that it is not shown why this delay, even if it was unavoidable, need have hindered the issue of a certificate stating the date of commencement of the furlough and the rate of furlough pay. Such certificates are commonly issued by the pay departments to officers and warrant officers quitting India on sick leave in anticipation of the grant of furlough, and are acted on in this office, the period of furlough being ascertained from the copies of your General Orders subsequently transmitted.
