READ—the following papers :—

From Major S. C. CLARKE, R.E., Officiating Superintending Engineer, III Circle, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Bellary, 24th January 1884, No. 2891.

I have the honor to lay before you the following case for favorable consideration.

2. Mr. Cormac, Sub-Engineer, has, since Mr. Nordmann's departure from Bellary in October 1883, been placed in charge of the Bellary division, in addition to his own duties as the sub-divisional officer. For such extra responsibilities he has been permitted to draw the acting allowance of Rs. 50 per month; but he now informs me that the Examiner has lately disallowed his sub-divisional allowance on the grounds of his being the recipient of the divisional allowance, although no other subordinate is in charge of the sub-division, so that virtually Mr. Cormac is only a gainer to the amount of Rs. 20 per mensem.

Office note by the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, dated 2nd February 1884, No. 1144.

ORDER—dated 11th February 1884, No. 368 W., Public Works.

Ordered that the Government of India be addressed.

LETTER—from
COLONEL J. SHAW-STEWART, R.E.,
Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Public Works Department,

To
THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to refer the following case for the consideration of the Government of India.

2. In October last, the Executive Engineer of the Bellary division was deputed for special duty, and the divisional charge fell to the sub-divisional officer, Mr. J. Cormac, Sub-Engineer, 2nd grade. While in charge of the sub-division, Mr. Cormac drew the usual sub-divisional allowance of Rs. 30 per mensem; and, on taking over the division, claimed the charge allowance of Rs. 50 admissible under section 36, exception 2, of the Pay and Acting Allowance Code.

3. The Examiner, Public Works Accounts, considers that Mr. Cormac is entitled to only Rs. 50 per mensem as charge allowance, and has no claim to the sub-divisional allowance of Rs. 30, notwithstanding that Mr. Cormac continues to hold the sub-division. Mr. Cormac would thus receive only Rs. 20 extra for the increased responsibilities, and the enhanced expenditure to which he must necessarily be put by the greatly more important and extended charge.

4. His Excellency the Governor in Council is of opinion that, should the Examiner's interpretation of the rules be correct, they might, with advantage to the public service, be amended in this particular. In any case, I am to request that the sanction of the Government of India may be accorded to charge and sub-divisional allowance being both admitted in the present case, which is of an exceptional character.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Secretary to Govt., P.W.D.
