Mr. Traill is due on 5th February + stands posted to the 1st Circle. The S. E. considered this inconvenient, + we wished to him suggesting an arrangement, but no reply has been received, as far as I am aware. Would it not be well to write again?

Mr. Scott may be granted travelling allowance for joining his appointment under Section 8 & 18 of the Civil Travelling allowance Code.

2. His appointment

Division, or as a new appointment, he being only a Temporary Assistant Engineer. Mr. Scott received an advance of Rs 400 in Bombay which he proposes to repay from the salary and Travelling Allowance due to him, and asks for a further advance of one month's pay. Under these circumstances I will thank you to inform me how Mr. Scott's appointment is to be treated.

Mr J. W. Scott, Temporary Assistant Engineer, appointed to No. 1 Tank Division, joined on the forenoon of the 23rd March 1885, but claims pay from the 11th March from this it would appear that Mr Scott was transferred from some other Division he also claims travelling allowance for the journey from Bombay to Madras. I wish to know if Mr Scott's appointment is to be treated as on transfer to No. 1 Tank Division
