

Gvt of India in my No 1064 W d/7th May 1885.

2. I am to add that the nominations referred to in my letter above quoted would have been reported sooner to the Gvt of India, had there not been some delay in obtaining, from the Supty. Engineers concerned, the dates on which the officers joined their appointments. In future the previous sanction of the Gvt of India will be applied for, when it is proposed to appoint an Upper Subordinate of the permanent establishment to a temporary engineership.
