dated 10th April 1885.

It having been brought to notice that instances frequently occur in which officers of Royal Engineers arrive in England on leave from this country, without notifying their leave and addresses to the Deputy Adjutant General, Royal Engineers, Horse Guards, and as great inconvenience is caused thereby, the Commander-in-Chief in India directs the attention of all officers of Royal Engineers to the provisions of paragraph 32, Section XIII, Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1883.
