Read the following papers :—

No. . From Brigadier-General GODFREY CLERK, Adjutant-General, to Lieutenant-Colonel A. KENNEY-HERBERT, Officiating Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Ootacamund, 11th April 1885, No. 771-O. (Leave).

With reference to the accompanying copy of a letter from Lieutenant-Colonel H. S. Court, Staff Corps, Superintendent of Police, Trichinopoly, I am directed to request you will be good enough to take the necessary steps to ascertain from the Government of India the authority under which note 3 has been added to Rule XXXIII, Furlough Regulations of 1868, as published in the supplement to the Bengal Army List, dated 5th July 1884, this office having received no intimation that officers employed in the police and others in civil employ, who have been refused permission to revert to military duty, are eligible for leave in India under chapter II of those regulations.

No. . From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General to the Government of Madras, to Lieut.-Colonel A. KENNEY-HERBERT, Officiating Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Fort St. George, 21st April 1885, No. 1049.

In forwarding letter from the Adjutant-General, No. 771-O. (Leave), dated the 11th April 1885, requesting Government to ascertain from the Government of India the authority under which note 3 has been added to Rule XXXIII, Furlough Regulations of 1868, as published in the supplement to the Bengal Army List, dated 5th July 1884, I have the honor to state that when, at the instance of Major D. Heming, I raised this question, the Adjutant-General in his letter, No. 1141-O. (Army List), dated 6th November 1884, informed me "that the appendix to the Quarterly Army List in which are published the furlough rules, &c., is, as is notified in the fly-leaf of the appendix, a non-official supplement, and is, therefore, no authority on the matters referred to therein."

2. I have received no official intimation from the Government of India of the application of the rules in chapter II of the Military Furlough Regulations of 1868 to officers employed in the police.

No. . To the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department; dated 24th April 1885, No. 2190.

No. . From Colonel G. CHESNEY, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to Lieutenant-Colonel A. KENNEY-HERBERT, Officiating Secretary to the Government of Madras, Military Department; dated Simla, 15th May 1885, No. 402-A.

Furlough.

I am directed to forward, for the information of the Governor in Council, the accompanying copy of Military department letter, No. 1003, dated 17th July 1882, and in reply to your letter noted on the margin to refer you to the above letter and No. 21-A., dated 4th January 1876 * as the authority for the insertion of note 3 to Rule XXXIII of the Furlough Regulations of 1868, under which officers in the police and certain others holding civil appointments are considered eligible for general leave in India.

No. 2190, dated 24th April 1885.
* Proceedings of Madras Government, No. 237, dated 13th January 1876.

From the Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Appointment Department; dated Fort William, 17th July 1882, No. 1003-A. (Furlough.)

Adverting to my letter, No. 821-A., dated the 1st June 1882, and with reference to your No. 2065-T. A., dated the 28th idem, I am directed to state, for the information of the Honorable the Lieutenant-Governor, that the Government of India having reconsidered the case of Colonel W. Gordon, Bengal Staff Corps, District Superintendent of Police, are of opinion that, as that officer cannot be allowed to resign his appointment and revert to military duty, there being no suitable military employment available for him, he may be admitted to the benefits of the decision in this office letter, No. 21, dated 4th January 1876.

2. The six months' leave in India applied for by Colonel Gordon may therefore be sanctioned and notified in His Honor's orders as under Rule XXV of the Military Furlough Regulations of 1868.

No. . ORDER THEREON, 4 June 1885, No. 3014.

Ordered that the foregoing letter from the Government of India be communicated for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and the correspondence furnished to the several departments of the Government Secretariat, in continuation of Proceedings of Government, No. 237, dated 13th January 1876.

Read the following papers:—

No. 55. From Brigadier-General GODFREY CLERK, Adjutant-General, to Lieutenant-Colonel A. KENNEY-HERBERT, Officiating Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Ootacamund, 11th April 1885, No. 771-O. (Leave).

With reference to the accompanying copy of a letter from Lieutenant-Colonel H. S. Court, Staff Corps, Superintendent of Police, Trichinopoly, I am directed to request you will be good enough to take the necessary steps to ascertain from the Government of India the authority under which note 3 has been added to Rule XXXIII, Furlough Regulations of 1868, as published in the supplement to the Bengal Army List, dated 5th July 1884, this office having received no intimation that officers employed in the police and others in civil employ, who have been refused permission to revert to military duty, are eligible for leave in India under chapter II of those regulations.

No. 56. From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General to the Government of Madras, to Lieut.-Colonel A. KENNEY-HERBERT, Officiating Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Fort St. George, 21st April 1885, No. 1049.

In forwarding letter from the Adjutant-General, No. 771-O. (Leave), dated the 11th April 1885, requesting Government to ascertain from the Government of India the authority under which note 3 has been added to Rule XXXIII, Furlough Regulations of 1868, as published in the supplement to the Bengal Army List, dated 5th July 1884, I have the honor to state that when, at the instance of Major D. Heming, I raised this question, the Adjutant-General in his letter, No. 1141-O. (Army List), dated 6th November 1884, informed me "that the appendix to the Quarterly Army List in which are published the furlough rules, &c., is, as is notified in the fly-leaf of the appendix, a non-official supplement, and is, therefore, no authority on the matters referred to therein."

2. I have received no official intimation from the Government of India of the application of the rules in chapter II of the Military Furlough Regulations of 1868 to officers employed in the police.
