READ—the following letter from Brigadier-General A. C. JOHNSON, C.B., Commanding Eastern District, to the Quartermaster-General, Madras Army, dated Fort St. George, 13th May 1885, No. 202 G.:—

The Officer Commanding Royal Artillery, Eastern district, having brought to my notice the dilapidated and almost useless condition of the three buildings (11, 12 and 12 a) which are old gun-sheds and harness-rooms situated in the horse artillery lines, Mount, I accordingly called upon the Executive Engineer, Chingleput division, to report on these buildings. He has reported that the buildings in question are old and out of repair, and that to thoroughly repair them would cost at least Rs. 4,000, and that they are not worth repairing.

2. The Officer Commanding Royal Artillery, Eastern district, is also of opinion that by removing these buildings the horse artillery lines would be opened out to the north and rendered cooler. I consider the removal of the buildings advisable, so now submit an estimate, amounting to Rs. 678, to enable the buildings being demolished.

No. 1854 A.

Forwarded to Government with a recommendation that sanction may be accorded to the buildings in question being demolished, as suggested by the General Officer Commanding Eastern district.

2. It will be observed that the buildings are so old and out of repair that it would cost at least Rs. 4,000 to put them in proper order.

3. The estimate has been approved.
