SIR,

I have the honour to report that J. Seroungada hood was entertained in this Office as Clerk 1st Class 3rd Grade from 1st April to 15th May 1885.

He was formerly employed in the Board of Revenue, where he was exempted from passing the U. C. S. Examination vide Copy of Order attached. He was last employed in the Commissary General's Office, Madras, where his services were dispensed with on reduction of establishment.

The Managers of Public Works Accounts having disallowed his salary on the ground that his entertainment should
