Enc:-2

The Accountant General, P. W.

Department, in his letter No. 91, dated 19th. January 1870, copy herewith, ruled that as the Officer holding the appointment of Consulting Architect to the Govt. of Madras draws a fixed consolidated salary he is not entitled to Presidency House Rent in addition. This was ruled at a time when Presidency House Rent was not drawn in Madras, since then all members of the Engineer or Upper Subordinate Establishment have drawn House Rent either on their consolidated pay or with reference to their Military rank.

2. The matter may, if Govt. approve, be referred to the Govt. of India under Code para 530 A.
