PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following

Letter from the Collector of Anantapur dated 24th January 1885, no. 37, suggesting the provisions of the Treasure Trove Act may be applied to an image discovered in the excavation of foundation trenches for the Hd. Asst. Collector's bungalow at Puntkonda.

Order: 13th February 1885, no. 37 (Rev.).

In the circumstances stated the Collector will proceed according to the Treasure Trove Act in respect of the image referred to.

I am Sir, &c.

(sd) E. F. Webster,

Chief Secretary.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Letter from the Collector of Anantapur, dated 21st May 1855, No. 241.

With reference to the order of Government, dated the 13th February last No 375 Miscellaneous, I have the honor to report that I have declared the image therein referred to to be ownerless under section 9 of the Treasure Trove Act VI of 1848, and to request in accordance with para 5 of the rules framed to regulate proceedings under the said Act that Government will be pleased to inform me whether they wish to acquire it.

2. The finder does not know its value, while the owner of the land in which it was found says it would cost two or three hundred rupees to make it. The Perumthanda Tahsildar finds his its value at about a hundred pes. I examined Mr. Frankland, Sub Engineer, here with a view to ascertain its value, and his opinion that such an image could not be made for less than two hundred pes. Should Government decide to acquire the image it might be better to have its value fixed on being sent to Madrid by some one who can value such work, as there is one here who professes to be able to do so.

A copy of the order passed by me herewith submitted.

Order. 8th June 1885, no. 1335 (ms).

As it appears that the image is worth acquiring for the museum the collector will arrange accordingly.

The Public Works Department is requested to have the image

image valued.
