Dear Sir,

On my way home on leave last summer an Engineer of the Indian Public Works Department recommended to me an instrument for rapid levelling and setting out of roads called the "Ceylon Ghaut tracer" which he informed me was made in your workshops. I shall be greatly obliged if you will kindly inform me whether one can be supplied to me for the public service in Cyprus, and the cost, so that I may remit the amount. If one can be sent, it should be addressed

Sir,

In April 1883 (your letter No 1179 W) you caused me to be supplied with a Ceylon Ghât Tracer which has been found very useful here.

I should be greatly obliged if I could, without inconvenience, be supplied with another one to be forwarded as before consigned to Government Engineer, Larnaca, Cyprus. I will forward draft in payment on receipt of account.
