READ—the following letter from R. S. BENSON, Esq., Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 13th July 1885, No. 1903 :—

I am directed to submit the accompanying plan and estimates for certain alterations and improvements in the court-house of the district munsif of Shernad, costing Rs. 1,534, and to request that the work may be carried out by the Public Works Department as the expenditure cannot be met from the grant for "Petty Construction and Repairs."

2. Mr. Wilkinson, the District Judge, on inspecting the court-house in February 1884, reported that "work is delayed by the clerks having to do work in the court-house while cases are being tried. The atmosphere is stifling, the crowd is great, and noise is more or less going on. The present building is most inconvenient. The clerks sit all round the munsif's bench instead of in a separate room. The head clerk and the copyists are in a small room apart. The munsif's retiring-room is a mere den." The High Court consider the proposed alterations necessary to make the building suitable for a court-house.
