READ—the following letter from H. B. GRIGG, Esq., M.A., Director of Public Instruction, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 15th October 1884, No. 7466:—

With reference to paragraph 3 of G.O., dated 21st February 1884, No. 483 W., I have the honor to submit the accompanying estimates for Rs. 1,450 for the extension of the college building at Rajahmundry. The Principal urges that the construction of a portico and principal entrance to the college is necessary, as there is at present no suitable entrance into the central hall for examiners and visitors who are now admitted by the side doors in a manner neither convenient nor dignified. I satisfied myself as to the need for this addition when on tour at Rajahmundry in March.
