Irrigation Range office
Bangalore 1st March 1876

From The Officer in charge of Irrigation Range
To The Superintending Engineer
Mysore

Sir, I beg to forward herewith an application with testimonials from Colonel Dalry Sub. Engineer Mysore and of having requested you to recommend him for a vacancy of Sub. Engineer now existing in the Salem District.

From the short experience I have had of him I am able to say that he will be able to carry out the duties of an Engineer. That he is a willing man and industrious. I hope that his hopes will be realized in obtaining a place like this for which his Certificate qualifies him.

V. Chirumungstafharry, a Surveyor in my range, being about to apply for a vacant Local Fund Overseeership, has asked me for a certificate and I give him one with pleasure hoping that he will be successful in his application.

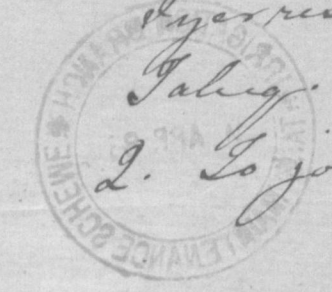

He has been nearly 2 years in this ³ Range and has given satisfaction. ³⁹⁸⁸ Of ³⁹⁸⁸ Course as a passed candidate in the Overseeers Test, he can Survey, Level and Draw and I am glad to say that in the Surveying, Levelling and Drawing he has had to do in this range, he has given satisfaction.
